Susan's Granny Style Baby Hat to Crochet: Susan's Easy Crochet Baby Patterns Susan Kennedy

This ebook pattern is from Susan's Baby Hat Collection. It's a super-fast, fun Granny Square style hat which is open, airy, old-fashioned and fun! The pattern comes in a Newborn, 3 Month size and 6 month size. It also comes with a pattern for the big and showy loopy flower and the traditional flower that can be sewn on to your baby hat.

You'll need less than three ounces of light weight (baby weight) yarns and a size K (6.50 mm) and a size G aluminum crochet hook (4.25 mm). The pattern is written in standard U.S. terms, and it comes with lots of step by step photos, a key to abbreviations, and of course, the instructions themselves. Please feel free to make and sell designs from this pattern, but do not republish the pattern itself, which is my own copyrighted design.

Simple and easy to make in baby weight yarn, this crochet baby cap is worked primarily in double crochet which are in clusters like the granny squares your Granny used to make!

Crochet is the perfect hobby! I love little projects like this one to pass along my love for this fun, simple, portable activity which can help you create much-loved gifts, useful objects, and wearable items. Plus, it's so popular right now, all of your creations will be noticed and enjoyed! No, my patterns don't include "how to crochet" tutorials, but they are usually simple first projects presented in a fresh, contemporary or traditional way.

This crocheted hat is quick to produce, the baby hat takes 30 to 60 minutes to make for an experienced crocheter.

Feel free to make and sell this item, you have my permission to use it (a link to my store and a mention is appreciated); however, please do not copy or sell my pattern, as it is my own copyrighted design. If you want to see more of my easy baby crochet patterns, just search Amazon for "susan kennedy crochet".
