Latin Lupus David Von Norden

Baja, beignets, bullets.

A new collaboration by Harold Truman and David Von Norden, LATIN LUPUS bounces from New Orleans, to D.C., to the steamy environs of Mexico, to a cliffside La Jolla mansion overlooking the Pacific.

America's President has inherited a troubled nation; its classical weak point is a vulnerable border. An insane drug kingpin declares war on the United States. Wielding an obscure weapon, the cartel threatens to decapitate the energy infrastructure of North America. The president, POTUS, is a former history teacher from Oregon. A first-class cynic and closet agnostic, he must once again rally the plebes around the flagpole.

But at what cost? And against what enemy?
