Half Empty Half Full: Death is in Perception (Volume 1) D. J. Marshall

Lisa Pier thought she had the perfect life. With a handsome and successful husband, her own career and four beautiful children, she couldn't ask for more. After an accident takes the lives of three of her children and her husband disappears, a series of unfortunate events leave Lisa struggling to raise her daughter in a new life that she never expected. As she tries to come to grips with her crumbling existence, secrets are revealed that make her wonder just how perfect her life really had been. Can she find happiness with the help of a new love or will the devastation of each secret chip away at her safety and her sanity?
