Letters To Doctor Narcissist: Prince of darkness - A true story Bavina Sookdeo

God does not protect us by keeping the truth from us; He protects us by SHOWING us the truth. This is the message Bhanavi Singh wishes to send to Connor Bedi's wife and all women. Letters to Doctor Narcissist, Prince of Darkness is a true story that speaks about one Trinidadian doctor, Connor Bedi and his darkness. Bhanavi Singh speaks about the beauty of true and genuine love, and the pain, hurt, anger and degradation that come with being betrayed by this one man. She speaks of the fact that once one's innocence is taken away it can never be regained. She tells her story of falling in love, begging with desperation, falling flat on her face and rising above the challenges and darkness that she faced. She speaks about allowing herself to be controlled by a man who possesses nothing but the darkness that comes with straying from one's source. Bhanavi shares her story of how she had fallen prey to one such man. And she speaks about detrimental consequences of following the majority. She is a woman of great strength and courage, and her only wish is that all women would find that inner strength to be all they can be. She encourages women to stand up for what they believe in and adhere to their morals and values. Letters to Doctor Narcissist, Prince of Darkness, even though it speaks about darkness, also speaks about faith in God and the power of prayer. This book aims to document what you may have faced as a woman, and to tell you that there is ALWAYS a way out of darkness. There is ALWAYS a way out.
