OLIVIA

“Your job?”

“Yes.”

I looked down, unable to look him straight in the eyes anymore. I had seen the same disgust in his eyes that I had always seen in mine when I looked at myself in the mirror.

“I don’t understand.”

He shook his head, still hoping he hadn’t heard me correctly.

JESSE

I couldn’t believe she had followed her mother’s footsteps after everything that had happened to us.

I couldn’t let her ruin her life and the life of the baby she was carrying. There may have been many men that could be the biological father, but I was the one that was going to be the real dad. She was my stepsister after all and she deserved so much better.

And I loved her more than a ‘brother’ should.
