Waiting for You Heather Huffman

For years, Karise McAlister has been running: from her family, from herself, and from her dreams. Now she's made it, with a successful career and a promising engagement. But when she meets the compelling and creative Aidan Donnelly, his down-to-earth charm provides the wakeup call Karise badly needs. Moving across country to start over, Karise devotes herself to her work, convinced she needs to be independent. But with handsome Aidan just down the road and a mischievous group of friends determined to set her up, Karise must face her concerns about life and romance head-on.

This is a new release of an edition originally published by Booktrope.
