This is the final report of the 9/11 Commission. It is the full report, including the Executive Summary, which was not in the PDF file. It was originally published in 2004. We have carefully formatted this without changing any wording, to be sure you have the actual, final report, but can easily read it in Kindle. The description of the report by the government is: The National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States (also known as the 9-11 Commission), an independent, bipartisan commission created by congressional legislation and the signature of President George W. Bush in late 2002, was chartered to prepare a full and complete account of the circumstances surrounding the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks, including preparedness for and the immediate response to the attacks. The Commission was also mandated to provide recommendations designed to guard against future attacks.
