Part rebellion, part civil war, part world conflict, The American Revolution - more than seven years of blood and bitterness - gave birth to a nation and direction to a people. This book will take you across the land of the colonists to relive their victories and defeats. You will meet the heroes and the villains of America's fight for freedom - Benjamin Franklin, Benedict Arnold, Thomas Jefferson, King George III, Bloody Tarleton, and George Washington. Almost 200 paintings and photographs, more than a dozen maps and battle paintings combine to help make this book exciting and memorable.
