Silent Destruction Baron Driden

A fearless robber... a perfect key... millions of dollars... Andros Varlander has been a small-time thief for most of his life. But when his uncle dies, he finds he's inherited something that can turn him into a large-time thief. His late uncle was a scientist who had designed a weapon that can break open any lock. Silently, completely, and unobtrusively. Now he has the ability to steal whatever his heart desires. Can the authorities stop him? Or will Andros continue to take until there's nothing left behind?
