"Secrets of How To Get The Best MONEY MAKING JOBS NOW!!" emanates from the author's 15 years of experience in the computer consulting industry and the nature of its constant job changes. In this very fast paced industry, the author changed jobs very often, aver aging about one per year. The observations and discoveries made by the author throughout this process lead him to find that people with better job marketing skills spent most of their time landing the best paying jobs. After extensive reading, research, and classes on this subject, the author realized that most publications are very general and not focused on individual career planning. That gave the author the idea to compile a publication that is easy to read, is step-by-step instructive, and is easy to understand. Anyone who is looking for a new or better position doesn't want or need to hear an academic study of the job market - instead, one needs a simple, clear, step-by-step approach in an easy to follow package, for one's own introduction in the job market.
