Capote: A Biography Gerald Clarke

"This man Gerald Clarke who's writing this book about me - do you know him? He's one of the lead writers at Time Magazine. He's really a very good writer. His book, it better be fantastic, because he's worked on it for eight years. I've never known such research. This is the first book he's written. I don't want to read it, but he certainly knows more about me than anybody else does, including myself." - Truman Capote (from Conversations with Capote by Lawrence Grobel)
