The Island of Doctor Moreau H. G. Wells

When the unfortunate and learned Prendick is rescued from a shipwreck, he believes himself safe from danger. Little does he know, however, that he will soon be abandoned on the island belonging to Dr. Moreau, a scientist whose experiments in animals shocked the British society, and populated by the humanoid results of his experiments. Forced to share the space with half-human and half-animal creatures, Prendick will have to devise a way to survive and escape this island with his life and wits.
