Find the best foods, treats & Supplements. Wet...dry...raw...special formula... homemade. Dog food choices continue to expand. Good Eats explores and explains what distinguishes the best foods from the competition. You'll discover the "lasting" advantages of canned foods, and you'll learn why you should never buy commercially manufactured treats at the grocery store. Read how to improve your dog's digestion, or how to combat an eating disorder. You'll learn the three rules of a homemade diet... how to prevent a nutrient imbalance... and why there is no one perfect food.

The Whole Dog Journal also publishes monthly guides providing dog owners with well researched, in-depth articles about all aspects of dog care and training. Articles feature unbiased test reports of dog food, treats, toys, and training aids. The Whole Dog Journal is best known for it's yearly reviews of both dry dog foods and canned dog foods.
