MARACAS Las Cuatro Estaciones Amanda Seewald M.Ed.

MARACAS Las Cuatro Estaciones is a FULL YEAR elementary Spanish language curriculum designed to bring an innovative, interactive language learning experience to your school or classroom. This comprehensive curriculum includes 25 easy-to-follow interactive lessons, child-friendly reproducible artwork and activity templates, reproducible student response books, home connection pages, national language and content standards alignment, and online supplemental materials. Using a Multiple Intelligences approach, students are immersed in Spanish through exploratory learning, music, interactive play, literature and crafts. Experiencing the sounds and rhythms of Spanish in a fun and exciting way brings learning to life and can create a love of learning language that can last a lifetime. MARACAS has provided engaging language learning for hundreds of students since 2002. In order to meet the growing demand for this innovative program, the MARACAS program curriculum and accompanying songs has become available for teachers, home-based learners and students to utilize in and beyond the classroom as a primary language learning tool, or as a supplemental tool to an existing program. “I am thrilled to make MARACAS Las Cuatro Estaciones available to families and schools. After many years of working with teachers, I am finally able to answer the question, where can I get your materials? It is my hope that MARACAS will assist many teachers in building dynamic early language opportunities and will help build a bridge between classroom and home-based learning inspiring our youngest learners to love language!” — Amanda Seewald, MARACAS Founder and Author
